

I am taking the time to email your committee about the proposed legislation regarding telephone soliciting.

Indiana recently enacted such a regulation, and it has decreased soliciting at my house to almost zero.

It is my understanding that your proposed regulation is not as strict as Indiana's and would replace Indiana's if enacted into law.

Such a change is not in the best interests of Indiana consumers.

Use Indiana's Law as a model, don't water it down!!

Eric Filipow